

WHY CHOOSE US?

Multi-structured Classes for All Age Groups

Thrive with Musical Interactions

Students can share their love for making music in a small class setting, turning piano learning into a fun adventure.

A Comprehensive Program for Mastery

Learning structure for students to develop Musical Autonomy; learn how to Read Music; have fun in Collaborating with Others; develop the Sense of Rhythm; enjoy Performing; and work through Challenges.

Affordable and Accessible

Our weekly one-hour session costs $30 per student, compared to the market rate for individual piano lessons in this area, which ranges from $70 to $100.

Well prepared for Learning other instruments

The class encompasses Core Music Theory, Active Listening, & Music Appreciation, equipping students for learning other instruments with ease.

Learning from the Expert

Dr. Katherine Chung is a classical pianist and an international music educator with more than 25 years of teaching experience across diverse age groups and educational environments.
